Directions: Ingest 6 drops per day until finished.

Platonic Detox

This remedy contains the signature vibrations of the 5 Platonic Solids (5 Elements) and the Torus. These are key building blocks of all organic life. They assist to balance our overall being. This remedy is good for detoxing the biological body of toxins and metals.

Platonic Detox contains the signature vibrations of the Platonic Solids; Hexahedron, Tetrahedron, Octahedron, Icosahedron and Dodecahedron along with the Torus.

Directions: Ingest 6 drops per day for 8-10 days.

Cell Memory Release

This remedy is helpful in assisting to release memory at the cellular level on all 4 levels, physical, emotional, mental & spiritual.

Cellular memory can come thru from past lives and is acquired thru the present lifetime. This memory serves a purpose but can sometimes become a burden for repeating past experiences sometimes linked to 'karma'.

Cell Memory Release will greatly assist leaving past baggage behind as you ingest the remedy while focusing on the memories you longer wish to carry.

Directions: Ingest 6 drops per day for 8-10 days.

Alpha/Theta Brain Wave

The Theta wave is in the range of 3-7 hertz and is characterized mainly with light sleep, Rapid Eye Movement (REM) dreams, and hallucinations. The brain uses this state to exercise itself, somewhat like working out your muscles to make them stronger and to release overall tension.

Interesting Note: Your brain cells reset their sodium & potassium ratios when the brain is in Theta state. After an extended period in the Beta state the ratio between potassium and sodium is out of balance. This is the main cause of what is known as "mental fatigue". A brief period in Theta (about 5 - 15min) can restore the ratio to normal, resulting in mental refreshment.

The Alpha wave ranges between 8-12 hertz and is prominent during relaxation mostly with eyes closed, day dreaming, and upon deep self-introspection.

Out of all the different types of brain waves there is a very interesting range called the Alpha-Theta border. The Theta/Alpha wave border is what brings about creativity, intelligence, and a host of other abilities the brain is capable of doing when properly stimulated.

It is a state where the central nervous system reduces input from the peripheral nervous system. The lowering of sensory input serves to normally protect the central nervous system from sensory overload caused by stress or physical damage. Without these outside functions for the brain to control the brain expands its functioning powers. The normally unused portion of the brain becomes active and performs at maximum capacity. This range is between 7-8 hertz and this is not so surprising when you learn that the resonant frequency of the earth and ionosphere is approximately 7.5 hertz.

Our brains evolved within this dynamic field and used it as a standard to function on.

Directions: Ingest 6 drops per day for 8-10 days.

Love/Inspiration Connection - Virtues combo #1

Love - Enhances the ability to being open and loving. Willing to care for others with concern in providing assistance to others. Giving love unconditionally to receive love without judgment.

Peace - Become relaxed with outcomes, flowing with the divine plan. Being able to laugh at your own situation and obtain silence within.

Gentleness - To become inspired and have a lively interest in things. Maybe concentrate on artistic/creative endeavours and be down to earth – ground yourself with mother earth.

Understanding - Being optimistic and not affected by setbacks. Providing you the understanding that every situation is correct. Stabilize your perception of challenges and to go with the flow.

Wisdom - Connecting to your higher self to choose correct action intuitively. Enhances the ability to be calm and collected.

Courage - Feeding the internal forces to be brave and heroic. To stand up to challenges and to concur them. Enhancing the ability of being selfless.

Hope - Guided with a fresh outlook on your life and the greater universal plan, a universal plan that includes you. You are unique and have purpose, focus on what it is you want to achieve.

Gratitude - Assists in releasing the fear of having to achieve to some other persons expectations so you can lead your life full of acceptance and confidence. Gratitude is the virtue of a feeling of thankfulness and appreciation.

(Universal connection, Inspiration, You are the Essence)

Emotional Release/Letting Go - Virtues combo #2

Sympathy - Provides courage to face difficult times of stress. Assists in your willingness to eliminate fear.

Steadfastness - Strengthen your ability to be quick to make decisions and take action. Be calm, poised and balanced. Giving you the stamina of increased determination.

Strength - Assists your essential self to maintain individuality by knowing when to give and when not. Providing the strength to be quietly confident of your potentials.

Tolerance - Enhances your ability to be in control of self and be open minded. Willing to listen and have no judgement. Understanding that everyone has a different path to live and to give them that respect.

Forgiveness - Surrendering to the divine. Being understanding and tolerant of others. Releasing thoughts that are holding you back (When you forgive, it is not the other person that benefits, it is you!).

Joy - Achieving happiness and prosperity. Enjoying life with gentleness, dignity and poise.

Faith - Instilling the belief that all things happen for the greater good. Confident about the future by following your passion and being aware.

Harmony - Assists with these elements: Stillness, tranquillity, ease, thankfulness, being in the moment. To be in harmony is to surrender to the divine and to flow in its Universal waters of the consciousness of Now.

(Release/Letting go, Commitment to life path, Happiness)

Grounding/Primal Function - Chakra Balancing Combo #1

The Solar Plexus Chakra (Yellow)

This chakra supplies nutritive subtle energy to most of the major organs of digestion and purification. These include the stomach, pancreas, liver, gall bladder, spleen, adrenal glands, lumbar vertebrae and the general digestive system.

It is also linked to the issue of personal power. Domination, anger and abuse of others can also be linked to an imbalance of the solar plexus chakra.

The Sacral Chakra (Orange)

This chakra is the subtle-energy seat of sexuality.

It is associated with reproductive organs, the urinary bladder, large and small intestines, the appendix and the lumbar vertebrae.

From a physioenergetic standpoint, the sacral chakra is associated with the expression of sensual emotion and sexuality. The amount of flow through this centre is relative to the amount of emotion and sexual energy in an individuals life.

The Base Chakra (Red)

The base chakra is linked to the basic survival instincts. It is connected with primal feelings of fear from physical injury and is the prime mover behind the so-called fight-or-flight response. This could be why the base chakra has a connection with the adrenal glands, the body's major source of adrenaline in times of stress.

An imbalance or over stimulation of the base chakra may manifest paranoia and a tendency to react defensively to most situations.

The Earth Grounding Chakra (Brown)

The earth grounding chakra is located 8 – 10cm beneath the feet. It radiates out into the earth, connecting us with the Mother of our birth.

Throughout our time on earth we feel a disconnection from the "Source" which can leave us feeling abandoned, unloved, scared and fearful of being in an environment with strict laws that govern our physicality.

This chakra soothes our souls by radiating comfort and stability from deep within our Mother Earths core.

Love/Truth Communication - Chakra Balancing Combo #2

The Throat Chakra (Blue)

The throat chakra has influence over the major glands and structures in the neck region. These include the thyroid and parathyroid glands, the mouth, vocal cords, and trachea as well as the cervical vertebrae.

This centre is symbolic with the mouth and vocal cords and with communication.

At the physical/emotional level, imbalance in the throat chakra may reflect difficulties in communication. This is especially evident in individuals who have difficulty in expressing themselves in front of others.

The Thymus Chakra (Aqua)

The main links of the thymus chakra is that of the thymus gland. Humans are the only ones of the great mammals who do not thump this area of the body. Stimulating this centre of the body releases thyroid hormones into the blood stream producing the regulation of immune response.

For those who have thymic atrophy in later years, there may be a relationship between loneliness, depression, blockage of the thymus chakra and loss of glandular function.

The Heart Chakra (Green)

This is one of the most important of the subtle energy centres as it is integral to an individuals ability to express love, this includes self-love and the expression of love to others.

The lessons of love are among the most critical that we must learn during our allotted time upon the physical plane.

Difficulties in learning these lessons can result in disease of the physical heart.

Spirit/Insight/Intuition Connection - Chakra Balancing Combo #3

The Crown Chakra (Violet)

This chakra is also associated with deep inner searching: the so-called spiritual quest.

The crown chakra is most active when an individual is seeking religious or spiritual answers and is on a quest for the meaning of life and the inner search for their origins as conscious evolved beings.

The opening of the crown chakra allows one to enter into the highest states of consciousness.

The Third Eye Chakra (Indigo)

The third eye chakra is aptly named due to past mystical associations of this centre with the pineal gland.

The third eye chakra is the seat of intuition and the subtle organ involved in clairvoyance. The degree of activity of the third eye chakra is an indication of an individual's intuitive prowess as well as their conscious level of awareness.

AzurA

The God spark. The start point of creation to the formation of the human self.

Also called the Genesis pattern (6 days of creation) and the Seed/Egg of Life.

Contained in this energetic part of our body is the connection point of direct communication to God/Creator/Source.

Within this centre is where the original God spark (Spirit) projected the first movement of creation to unite with Light (Masculine) and Sound (Feminine), in turn creating Sacred Geometry.

This Seed of Life Geometric structure contains the initial building blocks of life. From this 'seed', more complex and intricate patterns emerge creating our unique representation of form within the Universe.

By ingesting the AzurA Vibration Remedy you re-send the information contained in this energetic centre to radiate out into every cell, correcting imbalances and igniting the connective ness of all life to God/Creator/Source.

Mental/Emotional/Etheric Balance - Chakra Balancing Combo #4

The Universal Energy Body Chakra (White)

The third layer of your Aura emanating out from your physical body.

Also known as the mental body, the vehicle through which the self manifests and expresses the concrete intellect. This energy body is where all your thoughts are stored ready for physical manifestation, it has a direct link to the universal mind where all thoughts stem from. This energy body assists in interpreting your environment on a mental level, having this chakra unbalanced will result in a misrepresentation of your environment and events that happen to you.

The Intermediate Energy Body Chakra (Pink)

The second layer of your Aura emanating out from your physical body.

Also known as the astral body. The astral body contains the blueprint of our emotional selves. This energy body is where your emotions are stored energetically, this information then filters down into the biological body to release chemicals and hormones into the blood stream. This energy body interprets your environment on an emotional level, having this chakra unbalanced will result in a misrepresentation of your environment and events that happen to you.

The Radiant Energy Body Chakra (Turquoise)

Also known as the etheric body. The etheric body is composed of subtle matter vibrating at a much higher frequency than the physical body. It surrounds the physical body emanating out 12 - 15 cm.

The etheric body contains the blueprint, in the form of a holographic template, of the physical body and surrounds the physical reality like a glove. This energy body stores information about your physical, biological body, it assists in healing the physical after trauma, broken bones, surgery or any time the physical needs to heal or replicate itself on a cellular level.

Insight Receiver - Chakra Balancing Combo #5

^Movement (emotional/astral) (grounding onto earth plane)

A pair of chakras at the back of the knees, tan or forest green in colour. These are important for progress on one's life path. When balanced and functioning properly, they aid in moving forward for the accomplishment of one's karmic agreements.

Causal body (emotional/astral)

A sound reception chakra located at the back of the head where the skull meets the neck. It may be silver blue or red-violet in colour, and it is part of the Throat Complex. Its purpose is receiving other-than-physical communication and manifesting or translating it into information useful on earth. It is important in channelling. Other reception chakras on other levels feed into this chakra, although on reduced energy rates.

Vision (emotional/astral)

A pair of small chakras behind the eyes, they are silver or gray in colour. These are part of the psychic vision system (along with the etheric third eye and the mental body light chakras at the temples). These chakras also make it possible for some people to use their eyes as lasers in psychic healing. Even if the Third eye chakra is balanced, psychic vision requires these chakras to be open and unobstructed for images to be received.

Transpersonal point (Soul star) (emotional/astral) (Anchor point for silver cord)

The Transpersonal point is the emotional body equivalent of the etheric crown. Its colour is clear. It has its connection with the Core Soul and with all of our energy components beyond the physical/etheric levels. It increases our outreach to the universe and expands who we are, to our Core Soul levels, and to spirituality further than the crown can take us.

Root (mental)

This chakra is a core connection point for the mental body to attach to the etheric body. Located at the base of spine.

Creation (spiritual)

Located in the centre of the back at the heart. Where sound is god/goddess creation, then this chakra is the human spiritual variety. Primal tones of the Creator are received here to continue the process of translating energy from Source to Earth.

[Chakra combo remedy #5 is concentrating on balancing the emotional body to receive information from higher realms and translating that onto the Earth plane. It contains vital connection information linking to creator source]

Psychic Vision/Vocal Communication - Chakra Balancing Combo #6

^Perineum (emotional/astral) (grounding onto earth plane)

The emotional equivalent of the Etheric Base, and located just below it between vagina/scrotum and anus. This is the chakra for both transcending the physical and manifesting it, for bringing one's spiritual life purpose into earthplane physicality. In the East, the Perineum is called the gateway of life and death.

Diaphragm (emotional/astral)

This is the centre that regulates emotional cleansing and the life changes that often follow. Emotional purging can occur thru this chakra. This detoxification and energy clearing is a way of healing damage and preventing it from deepening or being carried into other lifetimes. Even if the clearing is sometimes uncomfortable, it is still positive and necessary.

Light (mental)

Needed for gathering psychic information and psychic vision. Direct connection to the Mind Grid. The Light Chakras are part of the psychic vision system, they carry information from outer levels to bring visual images to the etheric body.

The Light chakras are located at the temples.

Crown (mental)

This Crown Chakra is needed for gathering psychic information and psychic vision. Connects to the spiritual body and the Universal mind grid. It is located above your head.

Reception/information (spiritual)

Base of skull/neck. Linked with the Causal body chakra on the Hara level. Part of the throat complex that contains the creation blueprint for all the bodies on all octaves and levels.

It is where spiritual communication and channelling are received.

[Chakra combo remedy #6 provides a balance between the emotional/mental and spiritual bodies. Assists in guidance on ones spiritual life purpose and aids in clearing/cleansing/purging emotional issues to obtain clear energy flow. Very good for psychic reception in vision form and for expressing thru vocal communication]

Soul/Passion Manifestation/Action - Chakra Balancing Combo #7

The Hara (emotional/astral) (Anchor point for silver cord)

Located 2 inches below the navel, it houses one's life purpose and the desire to achieve it. For this reason, it is an extremely important centre. It is a frequent site for negative hooks, which are karmic attachments to people who are obstructing your life path. Often called the place of original Qi - life force you were born with. Any disruption of this energy has negative consequences in your life.

The Hara is the central axis or balance point of the body, and its colour is orange-brown, shading to gold-brown or almost red.

Finger tips (5 each hand) (mental)

Transmitters of sensory perception. These centres need to be activated to receive and give Qi energy. Very important for hands on healing.

Lower throat (mental)

Expressing spiritual truth - the connection of the body, mind and spirit. Much lighter information and truth comes through this chakra for expression to yourself and to others of your spiritual journey and gifts. It is a centre for inspiration to come through from higher realms for verbalisation on Earth.

Propulsion (spiritual)

Located on the heel of each foot, spiritual energy continues down from the knees to put creation and ideas into motion. This enables the process begun with the Creator to be manifested/finished on Earth.

Action (spiritual)

Located at the back of the knees, this energy continues down from higher chakras for spiritual action.

Enables you to move forward along your soul path to complete life lessons for this incarnation.

Manifestation (spiritual)

Located on the spine below the neck. It continues the process of bringing creation from the Creator/Source down thru the levels of the Chakra system. This chakra relays creation (sound) into existence (manifestation chakra) by way of understanding (Reception/information chakra) and expression (communication chakra).

Communication (spiritual)

Located at the lower throat on the back of the neck. This chakra is for spiritual speech, and it takes the data of sound and Reception/information chakras and expresses it. On the lower octave of the mental body, this chakra is the spoken union of body, mind and spirit. This chakra takes universal sound/creation and translates the information into human sound/creation or spiritual speech.

[Chakra combo remedy #7 contains core connection information on a very high frequency level. It has a strong focus on the spiritual body.]

Assists in putting into motion, thru action, your spiritual passions and manifesting them onto the Earth plane. It greatly assists in communicating and sharing Universal wisdom and truth]

Higher Self/Divine Matrix Connection - Chakra Balancing Combo #8 (spray)

Silicate Matrix (Divine Blueprint)

The Silicate Matrix contains the original DNA - 12 Strand code structure of the original Taran-human prototype. It presently exists within a number of humans as a latent genetic code sequence that must be brought into activation. Once activated, it allows for the progressive transmutation of form. Not all humans carry this code, and not all code carriers can endure full activation, but those who carry this matrix have the potential ability of accelerated evolution.

Connected to the Tree of Life and the Christ Consciousness Grid, it re-awakens us to live the full homeo sapien experience with full 12 strand DNA activation. The more strands of DNA we have activated, the more complete we are and more information can move thru us raising our awareness and consciousness helping decipher truth from deception.

Higher Self

The Higher Self chakra opens up a clear communication portal between your Conscious and Super-Conscious minds.

Enhancing your own internal wisdom, your intuition, and forming a direct link with higher knowledge & connection to the Akashic Field (A-Field).

If you are not already on it, opening up this portal guides you to follow your passion and soul contract. Over time it will direct you with symbols, thought or other communication to open up opportunities that best suit your 'mission/purpose' on Earth.

Directions: Spray around your aura daily until finished.
